TEACHER TRAINING

at the Yoga Center of Deerfield Beach

The Yoga Center is delighted to offer 200-Hour Teacher Training led by a faculty of highly trained yoga educators. We have led teacher trainings since 1988 and became a Yoga Alliance school in 2000. Our staff has over 100 years of teaching experience combined. NEW FORMAT: This in-depth, comprehensive course will be offered online on alternate weekends. Course provides extensive training, textbooks and instructional materials, individual guidance, and exploration of all aspects of Yoga. Beyond the hours, the information and the training, this course provides an opportunity for spiritual enrichment.

Becoming a Yoga teacher is a dharma, a calling. It is a great gift to yourself to discover your destiny.

This comprehensive 200 hour course offers in-depth training, textbooks and instructional materials, individual guidance, and exploration of all aspects of Yoga. Deepen your understanding of the practice and teaching of Yoga.

Course of study:

- Asana
- Philosophy
- Pranayama
- Anatomy
- Physiology
- Meditation
- History
- Bhagavad Gita
- Upanishads
- Patanjali's Yoga Sutras
- Sanskrit terminology
- Ashtanga (8 Limbs)
- Specialized techniques
- Practice Teaching

We cover 101 primary asanas in the various categories: standing, balancing, inverted, forward and back bending, lateral flexion, and rotation. You will learn to help your students find the proper alignment, ways to use language for precise instruction, how to string asanas together in a flow - Vinyasa - and how to use the breath in posture.

Special emphasis will be placed on the therapeutic application of asana for pain relief and structural alignment and the mechanics of the various joints of the body. Explore the physiology of relaxation and how to challenge as well as support your students in class.

Energetic anatomy will deepen your understanding of how the cosmic force manifests in the chakras system and is expressed through personality and behavior. You will learn how the various sheaths are connected and the role of pranayama in asana and meditation, including Kapalabhati, Nadi Shodhana, Ujjayi, Bhastrika, and more.

Our faculty has over 100 years of combined experience teaching yoga

LEAD FACULTY

Louise Goldberg, MA, E-RYT 500, C-IAYT,

is the director of the Yoga Center of Deerfield Beach and of the Children's Yoga Teacher Training. She is a certified yoga therapist, holds a Master's in reading education, and is a licensed massage therapist. She earned her yoga teacher certification at the Sivananda Yoga Vedanta Center in Quebec in 1981. She is the author of Classroom Yoga Breaks: Brief Exercises to Create Calm (2017) and Yoga Therapy for Children with Autism and Special Needs (2013) published by WW Norton. A teacher of all ages and abilities, Louise is founder of Creative Relaxation®, yoga instruction for educators, and leads retreats and teacher trainings internationally. She sees yoga's benefits in healing injuries, trauma, and chronic pain. Her love for asana, her fascination with yoga philosophy, her extraordinary faith in people, and her desire to bring peace into the world are the foundations for her teaching.

Christine Apter, PhD, ERYT 500,

holds a Doctorate in Natural Health and a Master's in Microbiology. A student of yoga since 1968, she offers deep insights into the techniques, philosophy, body mechanics, and wisdom of yoga. She is the author of A Journey in the Heart: Teaching Yoga Deeper, an advanced teacher training manual, and leads advanced trainings at the Yoga Center. She has been inspired by the Anusara style of yoga which blends the science of biomechanics and the art of opening to grace. She embraces the delight of yoga and is dedicated to serving each student to help them unveil their innate goodness, worthiness, and Supreme nature. Known for her enthusiasm, knowledge, wit, and wisdom, Christine's yoga philosophy is: "Our purpose on this earth is to realize our true nature."

ADJUNCT FACULTY

Joy Weissman, ERYT 500 began her yoga

journey in 1971. Upon completing teacher training in 1995 with JoAnn Evans, Joy co-founded The Joy of Yoga Center in Coral Springs, Florida. In 2003, she returned to South Florida after 3 years in Sedona, Arizona. Joy's approach to teaching is innovative and soulful. She brings warmth, humor, and enthusiasm to her classes.

Kate Brescia, ERYT 200, has been teaching vinyasa yoga for 12 years. Her continuous yoga education influences her attention to alignment and mindful cueing, allowing her to safely support students on their journeys into self-inquiry. She helps each student find the unique expression of their yoga practice.

Her classes are playful yet grounded.

Cheryl Thatcher, RN, ERYT 200, is a licensed massage therapist, registered nurse, and owner of Heart and Soul Yoga and Wellness. Her journey to Self began over 20 years ago and she has been teaching since 2011. Cheryl has a knack for breaking down the basics of the human body to make it interesting and easy to understand.

Melissa D'Errico, RYT 500, attributes the start of her yogic journey to her love of movement. She holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Dance and has been teaching yoga for 6 years with specialties in Prenatal Yoga, Yin Yoga, Yoga Nidra, and Creative Relaxation for Children with Special Needs. She is a Reiki Master and has been practicing Reiki for 33 years. Melissa is Assistant Studio Manager of the Yoga Center.

On this path, no effort is wasted (Bhagavad Gita)
